Summer is officially coming to an end which means prime time golf weather for the next few months. First off, congratulations to Billy Long and Avery Greenlee for holding off Pat Pye and Al Davis to win the 2009 Men's Member Guest. We had a fantastic tournament with a 48 team field, the largest since the King's Grant days, thanks again to all participants. Another tournament with great success was the Men's Senior Club Championship and President's Cup, with a field of 40 players. Congratulations to the new Senior Club Champion, Jay Baldwin. Also to Jim Banks for winning the Senior President's Cup and Jim West for winning the Statesman Division. Be on the lookout for more tournaments throughout the fall. We are planning to have a golfer's breakfast tournament and other fun tourneys, along with some dinners and socials.
