From the Office

Many thanks to Gary Bailey Construction for the awesome job on hole #10 bridge and #13 pond wash out from the October flood. We are finally making the turn into warmer weather and hopefully lots of sunshine. We would also like to thank Mr. Chappell Jones and his family for their work on new course/cart signs placed on various holes. Very well done and easy to read!

The SCJGA Team William T1D junior golf competition held at the club on Feb 27 was a huge success. Many thanks to Suzie Wimberly for her hard work and dedication to the event and the effort to raise money and awareness for JDRF (Juvenile Diabetes Research Fund).

Member sign up for the Chick Miler Invitational (May 27, 28, 29) will begin April 25th. Payment must be made when you sign up for this club tournament to lock in your spot-- invitations to non-members will be mailed the last week of April. The tournament field is limited to the first 192 entries so make your plans early to play.

Bo has the pool in great shape after tedious cleaning and touch up painting. We should begin re-filling it soon and possibly have it open by early May. The open dates will be posted in the May newsletter.

The pro shop is now open until 6 pm. We hope you can take advantage of the extended daylight hours and enjoy the season. Please take a moment to review the events for April. Trae and Lee do a fantastic job planning social events for the club and delicious dinners prepared by Tom O'Callaghan and staff are well worth attending!

We look forward to seeing you at the course :)

Bray's Bogeys

Spring is here and golf is starting to pick up. April is a great time for golf as we see the start of the PGA tour major season as well as the start of our own major season. Our first major, The Club Championship and President's Cup, will be held the first weekend of April and we will recognize the winners in the next newsletter. Our next two majors will be the Chick Miler in May and the Match Play held over the Summer. The PGA major season starts off with the Masters and we will be doing our annual Masters Pool once the field is finalized on April 3 - which means you only have 3 days to fill out a sheet before play begins on April 7.

Last year we had a few demo Ping G30 drivers but this year we have expanded to Ping, Callaway and Bridgestone demo drivers as well as Ping and Callaway demo irons. Now that the net is up in the Simulator office I can do driver comparisons inside instead of just irons for anyone interested. With the net up I can also start opening the office as a virtual driving range.

The Titleist Prov1 loyalty program is running until April 17 and is a fantastic deal for anyone who enjoys the Prov1 golf ball. Order 3 dozen Prov1 or Prov1x and get a fourth dozen free - all orders must be personalized and can have the same number on each ball if desired.

I know I'm enjoying the nicer weather and love seeing the grass green up - this should be a great month for golf!
