From the Office

We said farewell to another great man and loyal club member, Mr. John Ward, who passed away on Father's Day. John will be missed so much. He was such a genuinely kind and generous man. Many of the clocks seen around the pro shop and club were donated by John not to mention many clubs and golf items he donated for junior golfers. Our thoughts and prayers are with Malissa and family members.

The pool has been the place to be this summer! We are working hard to keep up with the crowds and appreciate your patience for any maintenance that has to be done, occasionally closing the pool. It's always a good idea to call late in the day to make sure the pool is open after hours because we switched the combo lock to a keyed lock. Remember the pool closes every night at 9:00 p.m. Please do not jump the fence after 9:00 pm to swim because without lights and proper supervision we are concerned about the safety of swimmers. We are considering installing security surveillance due to the ongoing late night swimming.

Lots of events are planned for July so please look at the schedule listed in this newsletter and check out our website too. Thanks for all you do to make the club a fun place to be. ~~~Suzanne

Our guards/attendants are scheduled seven days a week from 10A-6P. All members are asked to sign in with the guard on duty. Guests of members are allowed only if accompanied by the member and you may be billed $3 per guest. NOTE- babysitters are allowed to bring your children for you with your permission. PLEASE make sure you send your member card with the sitter. After hours private pool parties can be arranged by calling Lee Ray at 843-568-1806. Members receive a reduced rate for pool rental and a club attendant must be present to close the pool at 6 for a private party. We will post a list of pool parties at the gate, with the guard and in the pro shop. Please pay attention to the schedule as the pool is closed for after-hours swimming on the scheduled private party nights.

Bray's Bogeys

Congratulations to RJ Keur on claiming his second consecutive Chick Miler title shooting a 5 under 66. We had a huge turnout of 210 players - unfortunately tropical storm Bonnie halted play midway through round 2 but we still went on with the festivities. As always I want to thank all of our employees and volunteers that ensure the tournament is always a success.

The annual Father Son/Daughter was our first multi-round tournament of the year that didn't get rained out! We had a huge field of 46 teams and congratulations to Tom and Will Jeter for winning the overall title with two scores of 61. The match play has officially started so be sure to check the bracket in the shop and contact your opponent to play - the first round always takes the longest so we will have 10 days to complete the first round - subsequent rounds will have one week each. Our next club tournament is the Member /Member which will be July 9-10 - this will be two player 18 hole shamble format each day.

I'm hosting a Junior golf camp for ages 6 - 15, July 18-21, 8 am to 1030 am, with optional supervised swimming 1030 to 1130 am; $100 per child includes snacks and drinks each day. Sign up in the pro shop.

The 17th annual Roy Meyers Junior Open will be held July 22 and is open to any junior golfers ages 7 - 18. Entry forms are in the pro shop.

We now have a Mizuno account and will be getting a Mizuno performance fitting cart (in the next month). When combined with a launch monitor the Mizuno system is top of the class for club fitting.

Lastly, I want to offer our condolences to the family of long time member John Ward. Mr. Ward was always so upbeat and happily donated several club making supplies last year with the intent on benefiting junior golfers. ~~Bray

LADIES GOLFING NEWS

Yes, summer is definitely here. Have you checked out the babies on the course? The population of ducks is growing. We have had lots of play on the course and late in the afternoon is a great place to find couples playing.

It was so nice to read about a few of the ladies from our course playing in the 2016 Charleston Ladies City Amateur and Senior Ladies City Amateur. Beth Greenlee and Suzanne Morgan played in the Second Flight of the Championship Flight. Clara Polutta played in the Senior Championship. Cele Infinger, who at one time played with our ladies before she moved, played in the Senior Championship also. We congratulate all those who played.

Since we do not have a formal ladies group, this will be the last article I write. However, if there is something you would like to have appear in the monthly bulletin, please let me or Suzanne Blanton know and we will put it in.

Our deepest sympathy and love to Malissa Ward on the death of her wonderful and sweet husband John. John was loved and respected by everyone who knew him and he loved hugs! Everyone will have wonderful memories of this sweet man.

Mark your calendars for dates and times if you have thrown away your last Miler Women's Golf Handbook. Play Days for Ladies are Tuesday and Thursday.

January, February, March	10AM
April	9:30 AM
May through September	9AM
October	9:30 AM
November and December	10AM

The Pro Shop will mark these times for ladies, but they appreciate your calling to let them know you are playing.

~~Eleanor Sims
