APRIL 2026 NEWSLETTER

BRAY'S BOGEYS: March seemed like it was here and gone in the blink of an eye. The weather is improving and the grass is starting to turn green which should make April a great start to the upcoming prime season. We have a few spots left for the April 9th Mizuno fitting. Please let me know if you are interested as I expect every spot to be filled soon.

Keep an eye out for driver / wedge closeouts soon in the pro shop as well as new shirts and Footjoy shoes. I hope everyone enjoys the Masters and look forward to the green grass!

FROM THE OFFICE: March was a tough month for us-we lost three treasured friends and members of the club: Coach Fred Edwards; Mr. Joe Pye and Dr. Joe Wren. Our hearts and prayers are with the families of these fine men.

The golf course is busier than ever and we are making progress on our pool repairs. New pool tiles, two new skimmers, new filters and pool paint touch ups are sure to make a difference this year. We are now taking applications for lifeguards/pool attendants age 16 + with at least CPR certification. Hopefully we will be able to open the pool by Mother's Day weekend.

We will close the golf pro shop on Easter Sunday, April 5th, at 2:00 pm to spend time with our families. Carts may be rented up to that time with walking allowed after 2:00 pm.

Life is precious – prayers for all of us to appreciate the gifts we have been blessed with and to never take them for granted! Wishing you all a blessed Easter! 😊 ~Suzanne Blanton
