From the Office

Spring is here-what beautiful weather we have been enjoying.

Many of you contacted me about a "SPAM" document email received from me in late April. I apologize for the actions of a W.O.W. account hacker-this action confirms our reluctance in sending out email statements at this time. We are working on this issue and it should be resolved soon-many thanks to Don Rucker of BBS Computers for his tireless help and IT support!

The 45th "Chick" Miler tees off on May 25, 26, & 27. We encourage members to sign up and play in our signature event. Members receive a discounted rate of $185 that is due upon sign up. The course will be closed all 3 days as we host 200+ golfers over the weekend vying for the Championship trophy. Member, Mike Cobb, is the 2017 Defending "Chick" Miler Champion and was also just crowned our 2018 Men's Overall Club Champion. It should be an exciting weekend for golf!

On April 18th our brand new fleet of Yamaha gas golf carts arrived. They are a sleek silver and have two usb ports for your convenience. You will certainly enjoy the new ride and much quieter hum. :)

Junior Interclub kicks off on June 11th at Crowfield. If your child is interested in playing in these Monday morning 9-hole competitions please call Bray at 843-452-4988. A complete schedule is listed in this newsletter.

Looking for a super busy season-as always thank you for your support! --Suzanne

Congratulations to Mike Cobb for winning the Club Championship and Rockie Bailey for winning the President's Cup. Mike finished with 72-72 to edge Bob Merryman by 1 shot. Gary Hartmann shot a steady 73-73 to place third. Thanks to everyone that played as we had a great turnout.

Our next major is the Chick Miler Invitational. Members do not need a form and can simply sign up anytime in the pro shop - please bring payment for the member entry fee of $185 when signing up as that will guarantee a spot.

Sign up forms for the Summer Match Play will be out in early May - there will be no cut off for this as this is also a major. If there is an odd number of players then we may have to do a play in match which will be based on the order signed up.

The next few months should be prime golf time and we look forward to another successful Chick Miler!

~Bray

Many thanks to Marty Bunch and his crew for the roofing job on Bray's golf shop building.
