From the Office

Hurricane Florence threw most of the Lowcountry a curve ball and many people left town and businesses closed up. As a family operation we were able to stay open throughout the event. We are thankful for the missed direct hit and grateful for all of our member's support and anxious customers that de-stressed on the golf course over the anticipation of the storm. Let's hope the rest of the hurricane season passes us by also!

Our thoughts and prayers are with Andy Balao for the loss of his father, Edgar Balao, on Sept 11th. "Ed" was a super nice guy and member of Kings Grant and the Miller course many years ago. He owned and operated The Golf Court, a golf merchandise store, just a few miles away. We will miss Ed--deepest sympathy to all of the family.

The pool is completely closed now-compliments of the debris from Florence-and just in time for the cooler weather to move in.

The 2018 Men's Senior Club Championship and Presidents Cup will be held Oct 23/24+25. We would love to crown a new LADIES club champion this year. Any Lady members that are interested in competing should call Bray to inquire. On that note, Mrs. Devvy Walker, our 7 time Ladies Club Champion (2005, 2009-2014), moved to Simpsonville with her husband, Richard, in 2016. Devvy just claimed her first Ladies club championship at Fox Run Country Club-no surprise to us!

Looking forward to fall weather and seeing y'all at the club!

-Suzanne

October is one of the best months for golf and will be full of opportunities for player of the year points. The first big event is the Senior Club Championship and President's Cup - this will be held on October 23-25. The first round may be played on either October 23 or 24 and the second round will be played on October 25. Cost is only $25 plus cart fee and includes tournament entry and lunch on Thursday after play.

Our next big event is the annual Cuthbert Cup to be played on Sunday October 28. This is a two player captains choice. Two titles are up for grabs - The June Cuthbert Net division and the Tommy Cuthbert gross division.

The 2018 Match Play concluded on September 12th. We started with 32 players in June and the final four contestants were Kyle Boczkowski vs. David Bordiuk and Jack Ellis vs. Jeffrey Winningham. After close elimination matches Kyle and Jack faced off for the championship. Congratulations to Jack Ellis for capturing the title and to runner up, Kyle, and David and Jeff.

In the pro shop we will soon have some new logo hats from O'Connor as well as outerwear from Under Armour and other companies.
