MARCH 2023 NEWSLETTER

FROM THE OFFICE-

What a preview of spring we have had! The golf course is blooming and soaking up the rain. The fairways were fertilized mid-February and several course projects are underway. We are continuing to make improvements around the clubhouse and appreciate your support and input.

With a busy golf season coming we appreciate your patience and encourage you to book your tee-times early. Beginning with daylight savings time on March 12, carts will be rented out until 5:30 with walking allowed after that. We have hired a few new cart attendants-Don Cronan, Phillip "Flip" Shackelford, and Brayden Schlabach-and plan to increase our presence on the course during weekend play to help your game to be even more enjoyable.

It's been 50 years since Mr. Bufort Blanton purchased this golf course from Mr. George "Chick" Miler. Mr. Blanton with help from the late Mr. Archie Paris created the "Chick" the very first year as the new owner (1974) to honor Mr. Miler. We are planning a special celebration during the 50th "Chick" Miler Invitational with more details coming in April. Sign up for the Invitational will begin April 28th for members and May 1st for invited guests.

We are truly blessed! 🙏 Suzanne

BRAY'S BOGEYS:

Congratulations to our 2023 Summerville Cup Team for making it five straight wins. Thanks as always to our captain Barry Connor and Pine Forest captain Mike Wills for another great event.

Our first major of the year is the Club Championship on March 25-26. Like we did last year we will have multiple divisions - Overall Club Champion, Overall President's Cup (low net), Senior Club Champion and Senior President's Cup. We discussed possibly moving this event to the summer because of outside conflicts but could not find another weekend without the same type of conflicts. Unfortunately, the Superbowl Powerball was rained out for a third year in a row. We may use this fun format in the benefit tournament for Marc Horne on May 7. I know the community and this club will rally together and help the Horne family get through this difficult time.

Lastly keep your calendars open for the 50th Anniversary of the "Chick" Miler Invitational to be held May 26-28. This should be a special event as it also coincides with 50 years of my granddad, Bufort Blanton, owning this club. As always we want to thank him for his vision and guidance.
